Voices at the Review Conference of the TPNW, Fall 2026

Voices Representatives will be participating in the historic First Review Conference of the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons, taking place 30 November through 4 December 2026 at the UN Headquarters in New York.

Whether you will be in New York or not, follow along and find out what they are doing!

1. Voices supported the development of a joint interfaith statement, which will be shared with the States Parties during the conference. If your organization would like to endorse, you can do so before 24 November by filling out this form.
2. On 29 November, we are participating in the Nuclear Ban Forum organized by the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN), and supporting the afternoon panel that include religious voices: From Moral Vision to Political Reality: Building Momentum for Nuclear Abolition. Some of the sessions will be livestreamed- visit https://www.icanw.org/forum2026 for more information.
3. If you are in New York, we would love to see you at the interfaith vigil we are organizing on Wednesday 2 December at 9:00-9:30am at the chapel inside the Church Center for the UN (777 United Nations Plaza). There will also be an informal breakfast for faith communities at 8:00am on the same day. Contact Anna at aikeda@sgi-ouna.org for more information.
4. Interested in following the conference? Most sessions will be livestreamed via UN WebTV. You can also check out the calendar of all civil society activities on the ICAN calendar.

We will also be posting on our social media during the week. Please follow us on Instagram!
